

This week at Ashford Park, children and staff have been learning more about the superpower that is ADHD.

If you are a parent or guardian who would like some further support, information or training, ADHD Embrace has a wealth of very useful information.

ADHD Embrace is a charity whose aim is to support parents and professionals who live and work with kids and teens with ADHD. 5% of the population have ADHD and early intervention and support can change the outcome of a child's life.

Providing a support community for the parents and professionals is at the heart of what ADHD Embrace do. To become part of our community register online. ADHD Embrace provide a variety of services including specialist seminars led by experts, teacher seminars, free ADHD workshops, subsidised parenting courses and an ADHD resource library and video store.

Additional Needs and Disabilities Partnership Engagement Sessions

As part of the ongoing co-production work of the Self-Evaluation Framework and the Inclusion and Additional Needs Strategy, Surrey County Council are running engagement opportunities across Surrey to hear from partners and families of children and young people with additional needs and disabilities. Hearing from professionals and residents across Surrey will help us to develop a strategy together that will improve outcomes for children.

These face-to-face sessions will be from 10am until 12pm at:

Guildford Library (Tuesday 15th November)

The Surrey History Centre, Woking (Wednesday 16th November)

Staines Library (Wednesday 23rd November)

Horley Library (Thursday 24th November)

Two virtual sessions will be held on:

Monday 14th November (5pm – 7pm)

Tuesday 22nd November (10am – 12pm)
