

Safeguarding Hotspot

Parking – Thank you to the majority of families who park safely and respectfully.

We had a visit from a Civil Enforcement Officer from Spelthorne Borough Council on Thursday to deal with the continued parking issues on Station Crescent.

Please park considerately in the areas surrounding the school. We have had complaints from residents from Station Crescent and Chesterfield Road.

Chertsey Museum Toy Workshop

The Year 1 children had a visit from the Chertsey Museum Toy workshop.

The children had great fun learning about toys from the past.

The children thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to explore how different toys worked and how they have changed over time.

Smart School Council

We are excited to have recently relaunched the Smart School Council. Please click on the link below to access the Smart School Councils Community Newsletter to discuss the ideas and suggestions with your children.

Word of the week/Palabra de la semana

This week's Spanish word of the week is sueño
Translation: to dream

Etymology: from the Old Spanish suenno, from Latin somnium meaning dream and derivative of somnus meaning sleep.

En mi sueño parecía que estaba volando- In my dream it was as if I was flying.

Football

Congratulations to Kerem N, Sohraab A, Sangyok R, Leon M, Antoni T, Thomas W, William D, Harry G-L and Nixon K for winning in the semi-final against St Michaels Catholic Primary School on Wednesday after school. Coach Michael and I were impressed by the boys efforts and skill throughout the game. It finished 1-1 at full time and Ashford Park won on penalties. We are looking forward to the final. Details to follow.

Achievement

MAC – Making Attendance Count
