

Safeguarding Hotspot Reporting absences

Thank you for reporting your children's absences. When you call, we would be grateful if you could select option 1 – 'To notify us of a pupil absence'.

The messages are collected regularly and if we have any queries, we will call you back.

Pobble published author!

Olivia L has written a beautiful poem and is a published author! Well done to Olivia!

Reception at 'The Look Out' - science learning

At 'The Look Out Discovery Centre', Reception explored lots of different areas of science using their 'hands on' science experiments!

"We used a pull force to get the balls down the track" by Gurmaan T & Blake H

"We span the rings then they stayed up by themselves" by Angelina M & William P

"The boat is going down the water using the force of the water" by Oscar D

"We played with sound. The shorter tubes made higher noises" by Gurmaan T & Zara P

Butterfly Class horse riding

Butterfly class have been horse riding at Park Lane Stables in Ham.

We have been enjoying learning how to groom horses and how to look after tack.

We have started sitting on the horses and having small rides as well.

Relationships and Health Education

Please be reminded of our school website which has important and useful information concerning this essential subject area, which forms part of our Personal, Social and Health education.

We deliver the Department for Education, Relationships and Health Education through a teaching and learning tool known as 'Jigsaw' and the details can be found here: Ashford Park Primary School - Relationships & Health Education \(RSE & PSHE\) (ashford-park.surrey.sch.uk).

Please also find further parental information, as we move onto the 'Changing Me', section of our Relationships and Health Education teaching: PowerPoint Presentation (ashford-park.surrey.sch.uk)

If you require any further information, please email: parents@ashford-park.surrey.sch.uk

PTA MUFTI Day for Bottle Tombola

The MUFTI Day for the Bottle Tombola is on Friday 24th June. We would be grateful of any bottle donations – the PTA will be on the gates with trolleys to collect the bottles. If you bring any glass bottles, please bring in a plastic bag in case of breakages. Thank you for supporting our PTA.
