YEAR 6 BRIDGE BUILDERS – DIMINISHING the DIFFERENCE

Feedback from our children re their Bridge Builders experience

Q1. Do you feel that mentoring has made a difference to your life?

It has helped me learn different things.

Yes, because it has given me more confidence to talk about what I want in life.

Because Hannah and all the lessons that she spoke to me about, have helped me.

Bridgebuilders made me braver!

Because Bridgebuilders has made me confident of moving up.

Yes because it has made me confident with secondary school.

Because I felt I learn a lot from the programme.

It has been fun learning with my mentor and will help me with secondary.

Bridgebuilders has helped me with my resilience.

Bridgebuilders has helped me with my life goals.

Q2. What have you enjoyed the most about your mentoring sessions?

Being able to talk about anything I want!

I've enjoyed the sessions because they've given me confidence.

All of it!

Everything!

The trip to Enterprise, as it was really fun.

That I got to talk to my mentor.

Just chatting with my mentor.

That my mentor bought me a colouring book and pencils.

Everything, I loved going to Hannah's work at Enterprise.

I enjoyed talking about whatever I wanted!

Talking about different things to help me when I'm older.

Q3. How has mentoring changed the things that you do? How has mentoring changed the way that you think?

It changed the way I react to different things.

I think it has helped me with not giving up and to always try your best.

To help with secondary and everything else.

It has helped how I change how I do my maths equations.

It has helped me think twice about what I do.

It hasn't changed me at all.

Yes, because I feel confident.

To think better about everything.

Because it has made me confident.

It has helped me to not give up and made me think before I do things.

It has made me more confident to take a chance.

It made me think of different things for when I'm older.

Q4. Would you recommend mentoring to your friends?

Yes, because it is really fun.

Yes, because you can talk about what you want to.

Yes, because the mentors are all very helpful and the sessions are fun.

Yes, because it's a great experience.

Yes, because it is really good.

It would be fun for them.

Yes, because it is a fun way to learn social and life skills.

Q5. Is there anything else that you would like to say about your mentoring experience?

I really enjoyed the workday experience and meeting new people.

It's all amazing.

It has been amazing because I have grown more confidence within me.

It has made me happy having the chance to talk to my mentor.

Thank you children for your feedback and GOOD LUCK for secondary school.
